“Attractively ripe red plums and cherries abound here with a core of red plums on the palate, which holds a ripe, central stance. The depth is good and it’s softer at the finish.”

“This great Pinot Noir opens with aromas of red cherry with earthy terroir and lighter herbal tones on the nose. The palate is plush showing red fruits that connect with lighter orange rind and wet stone character. Drink 2019-2025”

“Vibrant and well-structured, with refined cherry, stony mineral and green tea accents that build richness and polish toward fine-grained tannins. Drink now through 2028. 4,790 cases made.”
